Dear Not-for-Profit Executive,

We all know there are many not-for-profit organizations today that are faced with serious difficulties. The current economic times have resulted in a lot of not-for-profits having to meet challenges and resource circumstances that have never been faced and needing answers to questions such as:

- How does a not-for-profit organization deal with everything that is currently happening?
- What are others doing and how are they coping?
- What advice and ideas are important to consider?

The Not-for-Profit Practice Group at Hood & Strong LLP is concerned about these questions and the state of the economy in general as related to not-for-profit organizations. In answer to their need to find solutions and methods that work we are taking action to provide assistance.

We have developed a series of seminars that include bringing together professionals who service the not-for-profit industry and having them offer their ideas and insights on what not-for-profits need to be considering in today's environment. The first of these seminars will be held on May 7, 2009 at The City Club of San Francisco from 8:30 am to 10:30 a.m. (registration will begin at 8:00 am) and include presentations relating to:

- ❖ Banking by First Republic Bank
- ❖ Insurance by Arthur J. Gallagher & Co Insurance Brokers of California, Inc.
- ❖ Legal Considerations by Hanson Bridgett, LLP

Don't miss this opportunity to learn from professionals that service not-for-profit organizations about what you should be thinking and considering. Space is limited for this seminar so if you would like to attend please contact Kristen Glaub at (415) 856-3283 or kglaub@hoodstrong.com by May 1st. We look forward to seeing you.

Very truly yours,
Hood & Strong LLP
